WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING?

Chinese New Year

We began our Chinese New Year celebrations with a relaxed afternoon of arts and crafts. Residents enjoyed creating colourful decorations and learning a little about the traditions associated with the Lunar New Year.

The session was filled with conversation and laughter as everyone worked on their creations together. It was a cheerful way to mark the start of the celebrations and to welcome the idea of new beginnings.

Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day at St Margaret's was a lovely celebration of friendship, laughter and togetherness. Residents were treated to a special visit from Ailie Gray, who performed a selection of well-known love songs.

Her performance quickly filled the room with smiles, with many residents singing along and a few even taking to the floor for a gentle dance. The afternoon was made even sweeter with a selection of Valentine's treats and cakes. It was a simple but joyful celebration enjoyed by everyone who attended.

Pampering Session

Our pampering afternoon's always prove very popular, with residents treated to a relaxing nail care session. Nails are carefully shaped, polished and painted, with residents choosing colours that suit their style.

Alongside the manicures come plenty of friendly conversation and laughter. Residents are always delighted with their finished nails and enjoy showing them off afterwards.

Small moments like these can make a big difference to how people feel.

Burns Day

We marked Burns Day with a lively celebration honouring Robert Burns. The afternoon included music, dancing and delicious snacks.

We were pleased to welcome Matthew, a talented accordion player who brought a wonderful atmosphere to the room. Residents tapped their feet to the music and some enjoyed a dance. With traditional Scottish snacks to share and familiar tunes filling the lounge, it was a memorable way to celebrate the occasion.

Live Entertainment

We were delighted to welcome Alicia back to St Margaret's for another of her music sessions. Alicia sings and plays the ukulele, and her visits are always warmly received by residents.

There is usually plenty of singing along, and small percussion instruments are often handed out so everyone can join in with the rhythm. These sessions create a relaxed and cheerful atmosphere and are something many residents look forward to.

Christmas at St Margaret's

The Christmas period was full of festive activity across the home. One of the highlights was a visit from Mrs Claus, who spent time visiting residents in their rooms, sharing festive cheer and handing out small treats along the way.

In the lead-up to the big day, residents enjoyed gingerbread decorating, Christmas crafts and several festive gatherings. Our party days included music, dancing, games and lots of laughter. It was a busy but very enjoyable time, with many happy moments shared throughout the home.

Cool Creatures Visit

Residents had the chance to meet some unusual visitors when Cool Creatures came to St Margaret's. The session gave residents the opportunity to see and, for those who wished, gently handle a variety of animals.

There were plenty of smiles, a few surprised reactions and lots of curiosity as everyone learned more about the animals. The hands-on experience sparked conversation long after the visit had finished.

Looking Ahead

As we move into the coming months, we are looking forward to more activities that encourage creativity, social connection and enjoyment. With the weather beginning to improve, we hope to spend more time outdoors and continue welcoming entertainers and visitors to the home.

Thank you to everyone who supports St Margaret's, including families, volunteers and staff. Your involvement helps make the home a warm and positive place for our residents each day.
